Dear families

Dysart YouTube Channel

During this prolonged period of lockdown, Dysart School has been working on its own YouTube channel. We are working closely with Orchard Hill College Academy Trust to ensure that this will be a safe and secure platform for our families to access.

The Dysart YouTube channel will have some sessions and ideas of things you can do with your children whilst at home and we will be adding more items and videos over the coming weeks. It will mean that your child will be able to see some of the staff in school – just online.

Please use the link below to get our videos online. Once you have logged on it would be best to subscribe to the channel which will enable us to customise the name of the channel and make it easier to find.

We are also looking at some ways of offering online, virtual lessons to some of the students whom we feel would be able to access these and would benefit from them. We will keep you posted on this.

If you have any questions at all, please do not hesitate to contact me. Once the site is fully up and running, your feedback and comments would be very much appreciated and should be sent to Sue Bashford on sbashford@dysartschool.org

Yours sincerely
